TOP REASONS 5 To License Your Pet

- 1 A license tag on your pet's collar is one of the most effective ways to ensure you and your pet will be reunited in the event your pet becomes lost.
- 2 Rancho Cordova Animal Service Officers work hard to return all found pets, when the owner can be identified. If your pet is not licensed and becomes lost, it's likely your pet will be placed in a shelter. If your pet is taken to the shelter, licensed animals are held for a longer period of time than unlicensed pets.
- 3 Besides the practical benefits, the law requires that a dog or cat owner obtain a license and tag for a pet. You could be fined if your dog or cat is not licensed.
- 4 By purchasing a pet license you are contributing to the welfare of animals in our community. Proceeds from the licenses help fund our affordable spay and neuter programs, as well as pet retention assistance.
- 5 A license is one way to show you are a responsible pet owner. A pet license lets others know that your pet has received the required vaccinations that protect your pet from rabies.
